On July 20, 1978, Thursday, at 5:17 p.m. according to my watch, I looked at it as we, Sandra Florine and myself went past Mrs. Avis Alford's Grocery Store. I saw her car under the shed and a motorcycle, I'm not sure of the color, parked back of (south) Mrs. Alford's car and the gas pumps. The motorcycle was not close enough to the gas pumps or air hose to use either of them. I don't recall seeing a motorcycle helmet on the motorcycle.

This statement is true and complete to the best of my memory.

On Thursday, July 20, 1978 at approximately 5:20 p.m., I was driving north on Alabama 259 toward Alexander City, Alabama. As I passed Alford's Grocery I glanced over toward the store and as I did I saw a motorcycle parked south of Mrs. Alford's car.

I don't believe it was near the gas pumps. It was more behind the car. I don't know what color the motorcycle was they all look alike to me.

This statement is true and complete to the best of my memory.
